WHEN a worthy man dies, his relatives rest his remains in a plush-lined box—built especially to the dimensions of his "silent shell".

Rather a morbid reminder, perhaps. Still, if a soulless shell is entitled to made-to-measure consideration, how much more so is a live, throbbing and moving personality.

Why not have your new suit built to your order; built to your body and your taste? Why not have it Gierse Tailored, to your order at $18.50 to 40.00? Why not?
